A Testimonial

Sunday, on the choir's day off, at first I sat behind a full row of people in the middle of the auditorium. Turns out they were from Clinton MS, in town to see their son who goes to University of Montevallo and to hear Pastor David. One lady was most interested in learning about the Music Academy.

I looked around the filling auditorium and saw a friend on the very back row, organ side. I went to sit with her as she was alone. I commented about how drafty it was with the door open, hinting to move closer since there were so many seats. She said she was there because another friend usually comes in and sits at the end of the row, on the aisle. We had to move over to leave her that spot should she arrive. She didn't.

But during a hymn, my friend leaned over and whispered her friend likes that spot because she holds her phone out in the aisle during the special music and records it. I whispered back, "Why does she do that?"

She listens to it over and over during the week!!! Someone named Margie is edified by our music.

😊 To God be the glory!
