John 6:37

This week's guest speaker, Rev. Isaac Adams, Lead Pastor of Iron City Church, taught from the book of John. His main takeaways were:

- Anyone Can Come To Jesus
- Different People Will Come To Jesus
- You Should Come To Jesus

GOING DEEPER:

- Rev. Adams shared that there is a "freeness" in the Gospel and that anyone can come to Jesus. God offers salvation widely and indiscriminately. We do not have to clean ourselves up or have all our questions answered before we come to Him. Do you pray as if this is true? Do you proclaim the Gospel as if this is true?

- Different people will come to Jesus. Rev. Adams explained that this is not only a New Testament idea, but an idea that runs through the entire Bible. Jesus' ministry drew all kinds of people from varying religious, cultural, and socio-economic levels. His disciples were normal people like you and me—flawed, sinful, and broken. But they found unity in Jesus; they learned to love Jesus the most. Who have you "marked off" your list of those who will come to Jesus? What do you see when you look deep into your heart? How can you change your schedule this week to make more time for confession and repentance?

- Rev. Adams taught that when we come to Jesus—and we all should—He will never cast us out. He never will! He died in our place, taking the wrath we deserve for our sins. Trust in what Jesus did on the cross for you. Have you trusted in Jesus as your Savior and Lord? If you have not, who can you talk to this week about making that decision?

- After we come to Jesus, we keep coming back to Him like the ocean to the shore. Believe in Jesus and keep believing in Him again and again and again. Jesus will always welcome you. What disciplines do you need to begin practicing to strengthen your daily walk with the Lord?
