Is Anything Too Hard For The Lord?
Genesis 17 & 18:1-15

As we continued in the Book of Genesis this week, Pastor David explored God's promise to give Abraham & Sarah a child.

- In your sphere of influence, how can you extend hospitality “for the sake of Christian witness”?
 - Who can you invite into your home?
 - Your life?
 - What will have to change on your calendar for you to be available to host a neighbor?
- Describe a time and/or situation in your life where you faced something that seemed impossible. What was the outcome?
- What area(s) of your life feel “barren” and hopeless right now?
- Will you believe, in spite of your feelings, that nothing is impossible for God? What would that look like for you?

In your time with God this week,

1. Thank God for being more powerful than anything you could ever face. Write down Genesis 18: 14 and put it somewhere you will see it every day to help you remember this truth.
2. Ask God to show you people that need to experience His love through hospitality.
3. Commit to read The Gospel Comes With A House Key by Rosaria Butterfield and be intentional about inviting people into your home to share a meal.
