Heading There

It's always hard to get somewhere when you don't know where you're going. Just imagine getting on a plane to Ecuador, but the pilot hasn't been informed of the destination. As hard as the pilot might try and as sincere as the pilot may be, the plane will never arrive at the correct place, because the pilot doesn't know where the flight will land.

For us, we're heading to Ecuador, but we're not the first to go. Long before we planned this trip, long before a missionary was called or a church was built, God was present with the people of Ecuador. And even now, God is active in the midst of those we'll serve alongside — fellow Christians who have invited us to join them in their work advancing the Gospel among their friends, family, and neighbors. They will help us follow Christ, too.

Scripture says someday every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. Since we know that good news is certain, we're called to invite the world to know Christ today, not to wait until someday. We're called to make earth a little more like heaven by telling the world that heaven's already here in Christ.

Pastor David said it this way:

> Because we know there is a day that is coming where there will be perfect justice — perfect justice forevermore — we work now for justice. Because we know that we're moving to a day where there'll be no more orphans, we work and we pray for the cause of the orphan today. Because we know that there will be a day when no child will go to bed hungry, we work for and we pray for the cause of the hungry today, not just in some great "by and by." Because we know where we're headed, it affects how we live today… We know that there will be a day when every tribe and every tongue and every nation will worship him in the beauty of their diversity but unified by his throne. Since we know that's where we're headed, we see the walls of bias and prejudice and we say "tear them down and give us the inspiration to do that kind of heavenly work now." You see, we know where we're headed and because we know with great certainty where we are headed , it affects the way that you and I live now. [May 12, 2019]

As a response to God's call to show the love of Christ to everyone, including each other, Chapel Choir is going to Ecuador to be a part of the work God is already doing there through ministry, music, and service.

Water & Food

Bottled water will always be available on the buses and at Camp Chacauco in Ecuador. The only tap water that is safe to drink is at Camp Chacauco. That means no fountain drinks and no ice unless provided by Dawson. Bottled Cokes only. All food provided by Dawson will be safe to eat; do not eat any street food. Because of the high altitude, drink lots of water.
Pro Tip: Drape a towel over the sink in the hotel to remind you not to use the water to brush your teeth.

Restrooms

Restrooms in Ecuador are different than in the US. Toilet paper is not provided in restrooms, but will always be available to you on the bus and at Camp Chacauco. Keep a little with you during the day. With no exceptions, you'll throw used toilet paper and feminine products in the trash can; do not put them in the toilet. The pipes are much smaller, and it will clog the drain. If you forget and clog the drain, please tell a sponsor. We won't embarrass you. On the road in Ecuador, we will stop every hour for a restroom break.

Electricity & Power

The power supply in Ecuador is the same as the US, meaning you can charge all your gadgets as you normally do. The power grid at Camp Chacauco will not sustain tons of hairdryers and straighteners, so share with a friend or do without. There is no A/C in the dorms, but it does get cool at night. A small fan may be helpful to you. Showers have hot water, unless they don't.

Weather

Camp Chacauco (elevation range 7,000 ft. / Avg. Temp. 50° L -70° H) Andean Mountain Region, High Elevation. Cool and windy in the early mornings and late afternoons. Layers are recommended including a warm jacket or pullover, long sleeves, short sleeves, pants.

Social Media

For daily updates and to have your pictures included in the week-in-review slideshow, the Music & Worship Facebook page, and other places, please be sure to:

- Use the #bendicion2019 hashtag on Twitter, Instagram, Facebook, etc.
- Like Dawson Music & Worship on Facebook
- Follow @dawsonmusicandworship on Instagram

Post Office

Throughout Mission Tour each student and sponsor will write a note (provided) of encouragement and affirmation to all others in their family group. These can be turned in to the post office, kept by the Freshmen women, or via boxes on the bus. These completed notes will be distributed throughout Mission Tour.

Medical & Medication

Our Medical Coordinator is Dr. Dean Thornton. In case of sickness or injury, please tell a sponsor. Prescriptions must be in original packaging. Prescription medication will be administered as indicated at registration.

Money

You are responsible for a total of 5 meals en route; other meals are covered. You are responsible for extra snacks, souvenirs, and other optional items. In Ecuador, the US dollar is standard, with $1 coins preferred by vendors. Small bills ($1, $5, $10) are preferred. Alert your credit card company you will be traveling to Ecuador, so your card will work in the airport. See itinerary for daily monetary needs.

Apps for Tour

Mobile Passport enables U.S. citizens & Canadian visitors to save time during the entry process at 28 major U.S. airports & cruise ports! Securely submit your passport and customs declaration form and access designated express lanes in the inspection area.

The Google Translate app offers… Offline: Translate with no internet connection (59 languages); Instant camera translation: Translate text in images instantly by just pointing your camera (38 languages); Conversations: Translate bilingual conversations on the fly (32 languages)

The Restoration. The Christian worldview is clearly communicated to those who are interested in what Christians believe and also provides an understanding of how to become a Christian through faith in the Gospel.

Wifi & Phones

There is wifi at the dorm, so you will be able to post/upload pictures every night. Keep your phone in Airplane Mode during the day, and take as many pictures as you would like. Then, at night, turn wifi on and share them. Wifi is slow at Camp Chacauco, so get on to check in with your family and get back off. Save uploading video until you get home.

We will be using cell phones to communicate via text with Mission Tour participants, when in the US. From your cell phone, text the exact message @dawsoncha to the phone number 81010 to receive updates.

Carry-on Requirements

You are allowed to bring a quart-sized bag of liquids, aerosols, gels, creams and pastes in your carry-on bag and through the checkpoint. These are limited to travel-sized containers that are 3.4 ounces (100 milliliters) or less per item. It does not matter how much is in the container. Placing these items in the small plastic bag and separating from your carry-on baggage facilitates the screening process. Pack items that are in containers larger than 3.4 ounces or 100 milliliters in checked baggage. Any liquid, aerosol, gel, cream, or paste that alarms during screening will require additional screening. You may carry liquids in your checked bag, without restriction.

Flying Tips

- It is never okay to joke about having a weapon, bomb, or other illegal item. Doing so can get you arrested and the flight cancelled.
- Keep your passport/boarding passes handy when you arrive at the airport. You'll need them frequently. Neck wallets are helpful for keeping your I.D. and credit card handy while in the airport.
- Your tray table is actually connected to someone's seat. When you bump your tray table, you bump the person in front of you.
- To open many lavatory (restroom) doors, you must push on the middle of them. Lavatories are generally at the back of the plane. Be prepared for a huge gush when you flush, as airplane toilets are loud.
- You can request a blanket if you are cold. You can adjust the flow of air above your head by turning the nozzle.
- You must store your carry-on luggage under the seat in front of you or in the overhead bin. Don't try to keep your bag on your lap or by your feet.
- If you get sick, there's a white bag located in the seat back in front of you.
- There is a call button above your head to get help from the flight attendants. Use it sparingly.
- You will be in close quarters. Try to keep your arms in your own space. It's a little awkward sitting so close to a perfect stranger.
- Listen to and respect the flight attendants. They are in charge.
- If you are in an exit row, you must be willing and able to assist in case of an emergency. If you don't want to sit there, politely ask to be moved. If you are under 15 years old, you can't sit in an exit row.
- Seats recline in most rows by pressing a button on your armrest. Be considerate of the passenger behind you.
- Be friendly and considerate of others. Be patient and helpful if you're sitting by parents of young children.
- You must sit in your assigned seat as indicated on your boarding pass.
- There could be turbulence, but it's usually mild. So, just sit back and enjoy the flight.
- If you become anxious, take slow, deep breaths, and relax your body. Contact the mission tour medical personnel, if needed.

Worship Etiquette

- A worship service in Ecuador will likely be longer than the hour to which you're accustomed.
- The temperature can get quite warm. If you need to exit the building, do so with a sponsor.
- When it's time for the offering, give as you feel led. A single dollar is an appropriate gesture for giving.
- Local worship songs will be a joy to learn. Embrace the experience and participate.
- Things will be different in worship than you're used to, and your presence may make some of the local worship leaders nervous. Your genuine participation, the caring smile on your face, and the engagement of your body will signal to them that you support them.
- Avoid whispering, pointing, or giggling during worship. It's easy to be misunderstood, especially with a language barrier. Save your comments until we depart.
- Affirm and support what you see. Whatever it is, celebrate it. No matter how different, give thanks for it.
- Sing in English if you know the song!

Worship in Spanish

It may be hard to worship when you don't understand what's being said or sung. You may find yourself in a time of worship, music, or preaching that is not being led in English. When you do, don't zone out. Instead, try this…

- Participate. Risk feeling a little odd and try to participate, doing whatever the rest of the congregation is doing. Who cares if you don't do it perfectly. We don't worship perfectly even when it's being led in English!
- Notice. Look around you at the space you're in, the people who surround you, and those leading. What might God be teaching you through where you are now?
- Imagine. Imagine what might be happening. Listen for words you might know, for facial expressions and gestures. Imagine what God needs to say to you today.
- Read. Open your Bible and see if you can find the words to the scripture being preached. Read the passage through multiple times, and ask the Holy Spirit to illuminate the passage in your mind.
- Pray. Spend some time in prayer, certainly for yourself, but also for those around you. Pick a person and imagine their joys and struggles, and pray for them. What if you prayed for each person in the building before you left?
- Empathize. Even on Sunday morning at Dawson, there are some folks — and perhaps even you — who are invited to sing in a musical language that is not their first language. What's similar for them that you're also experiencing in Ecuador? What's different? What would help them at home? What would help you here, far from home?

The Bus Liturgy

Being still can be hard. With all the things competing for our attention, finding time to begin our day with Christ can be challenging. That's why we're beginning each day with a special kind of audio devotional — The Bus Liturgy — voiced by the Chapel Choir Officers. They'll guide your time of quiet reflection and preparation. You'll grab your phone and your headphones, close your eyes, and listen.

Each day you'll encounter a different kind of music to help focus your heart and mind. You'll hear words that remind you about what's in store for the day. Scripture will be the center of your devotional time, and you'll experience questions for reflection that will invite you to go deeper in your following of Christ. This is a time for still body, a quiet heart, and an openness to the Spirit of God.

It may not be easy, but take the risk of being still before your Creator. Your mind may wander; that's okay. When it does, just refocus your attention on the things you are hearing. You may even want to listen a second time if you found yourself distracted. That's great.

The Story: Creation

In the beginning, God spoke and everything came into existence. By His command, the entire universe was created and filled with a dramatic display of galaxies, stars, and planets— including Earth, on which was a perfect garden of paradise called Eden. Of all the beauty He created, the masterpiece was a man and a woman. God made Adam and Eve in His image to reflect Him. They were created with the grand purpose of worshipping Him by loving Him, serving Him, and enjoying relationship with Him.

By God's design, all of creation was in harmony and was exactly the way it was supposed to be. During this time there was no pain, suffering, sickness or death. There was complete love, acceptance, and intimacy between God and man, between Adam and Eve, and throughout creation. But something tragic happened…

The Story: Fall

Adam and Eve were far from being equal to God, yet He lovingly placed them in charge of all He had created in Eden. He gave them the freedom to make decisions and govern the earth with one rule: not to eat fruit from a specific tree. One day, God's enemy, a fallen angel named Satan, wanted to overthrow God so he took the form of a serpent and lied to Adam and Eve. He deceived them into thinking God was not good and did not have their best interest in mind. As a result, they knowingly disobeyed God.

In rebellion, Adam and Eve ate the fruit, deciding that they, not God, would determine right and wrong. The consequences of their actions were devastating! Like a virus, sin entered into all of creation and into the hearts of Adam and Eve. Sin, suffering, and pain were passed down from generation to generation; all of creation was distorted from its original design. We have all read or heard the stories of war, poverty, disease, greed, and scandals that plague our world today. Those are all a result of sin.

When we think about the perfection and love that existed at the beginning of creation, we realize "we are far more flawed and far more sinful than we can dare imagine." Just think of the grudges we've held, the lies we've told, the thoughts we'd never dare say aloud. An honest glance into our own hearts reveals the truth: We are all guilty. Everyone has sinned, and the ultimate consequence, even worse than physical death, is eternal separation from a loving God, in terrible misery and unhappiness. Because of all this, we need to consider the questions: Can anything be done? Is there any hope?

The Story: Rescue

God removed Adam and Eve from Eden as a result of their sin but left them with a promise of rescue and hope. He promised them one of their descendants would someday rescue mankind from sin. Over the next centuries, God prepared the way for this person who would become the Savior of the world. Exact details of His birth, life, and death were recorded in the Bible many centuries before His coming. In fact, the whole Bible ultimately points to this one person as the focal point of all human history. His purpose in coming was "to seek and to save what was lost" (Luke 19:10). So who was He?

The promised Savior, simply, was God. God became human in the person of Jesus Christ almost 2,000 years ago, fulfilling all the predictions in the Old Testament. Jesus' birth was miraculous since His mother was a virgin. His life was unique: He perfectly enjoyed and obeyed God without sin. This ultimately led to His agonizing death on a cross as He willingly, obediently, and sufficiently died to pay for the sins of mankind, according to God's plan. In the greatest display of mercy and grace the world has ever known, Jesus' life and death became a substitute for all who would trust in Him. The perfectly innocent died to rescue the hopelessly guilty from sin and Satan.

But the grave couldn't hold Jesus. Three days later, Jesus emerged from His tomb, fulfilling His earthly mission to defeat sin by dying on the cross and to defeat death by rising from the dead—just as God promised. Forty days later He returned to Heaven where He reigns as the rightful King.

But the story doesn't end there...

The Story: Restoration

For all those who trust in Jesus alone, God has also promised He will make all things new. The new heaven and new earth will be completely free of sin and selfishness—a place of perfect friendship with God, others, and all creation. No more shattering earthquakes, devastating tsunamis or violent storms will plague the earth. No more pain, broken hearts, sickness or death to trouble us.

Everything will be restored to the way it was meant to be. The new earth will once again be the perfect home God intended for His creation. God's original purpose will flourish, as those who trust in His rescue will enter into the grand purpose of worshipping Him by loving Him, serving Him, and enjoying relationship with Him forever.

The most wonderful part of this new world is that we will be with God forever, experiencing complete joy. We will be restored to a perfect relationship with the One who created, loved, and died for us. C. S. Lewis, scholar and children's author, compared the first step into this new world as "Chapter One of the Great Story which no one on earth has read: which goes on forever: in which every chapter is better than the one before."

The Story: Next

WHAT'S YOUR PART IN THE STORY?

God is writing an amazing story from creation to restoration. He created you to be a part of that story to worship Him, serve Him, and enjoy relationship with Him. By joining God in His story, you will find forgiveness, purpose, and satisfaction as you come to know the Author of life.

RESCUE BY FAITH ALONE

Faith is simple trust in Jesus Christ alone to save you. It means instead of believing you can rescue yourself from the consequences of sin, you transfer your trust to the rescue He purchased for you by His death. Your allegiance is now to Jesus, The King. Those who place their trust in anything other than Jesus will find themselves forever separated from the loving God who gave His one and only Son to set us free from the bondage of sin. This painful separation is called Hell.

RESPONSE

God is inviting you to be part of the story He is writing throughout the ages to come. He is offering salvation to you today, which is your invitation to the rescue God offers. You can embrace the rescue of God by simply:

- ADMITTING YOUR NEED TO GOD
- ASKING HIM TO FORGIVE YOU
- TRUSTING IN JESUS ALONE TO RESCUE YOU
- FOLLOWING JESUS CHRIST, THE KING OF YOUR LIFE, IN FAITH FROM THIS DAY FORWARD

NOW

The moment you trust Jesus Christ, you become a CHILD of God and His Spirit begins to LIVE inside of you. You have become part of His story. The more you grow in your relationship with God, the more of His story you will begin to see & understand in your life. All of your sin, past and future, is forgiven, and you now find total acceptance before Him. When you begin this relationship, Jesus promises to be with you through all the UPS and DOWNS and in the joys and difficulties of this life. He loves you with an EVERLASTING, unchanging love. And not only has He promised eternal life, but He came so that you could also experience purpose, fulfillment, and freedom in this life.

Questions for Reflection

Sometimes it helps to reflect on all that God has allowed you to encounter, and imagine through prayer what that might mean for you, your family, and your community. As you spend time with God, and with others, use these questions to help you reflect.

Daily Reflection

- What do you feel that God needed you to see or hear today? Why?
- What moments from today "grabbed" you in a deep way - in the gut?
- What moments from today made you cringe in a deep way - in the gut?
- What is your prayer for the people you encountered today?
- What concerns do you have at the end of this day?

Ongoing Reflection

- Ongoing reflection is a part of our work together. What event from earlier in the week are you still processing? Why?
- How does knowing "the end of the story" — that one day every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Jesus is Lord — impact the way you ministered to people today?
- What did you see today/on this trip that makes you want to act — to do something to make a difference?
- Did you have a moment today when you were grateful for our group?
- What stories from today/this week will you remember long after it is gone?
- What stories from today/this week will you share in the days ahead?

Future Imagination

- What hopes do you have for tomorrow?
- What hopes do you have after this mission tour?
- What might you change about your own thoughts, attitudes, and behaviors as a result of this day/this trip?
- How might you live differently as a result of this day/this trip?
- How is God changing you as a result of this trip?
