

David and Jonathan

Bible Phrase: Show love to one another. Romans 12:10

Scripture Reference: 1 Samuel 14:49; 18:1-4; 20:4,17

Bible Story: David was a special helper for King Saul. When the king felt sad, David played music on the harp to make him feel better.

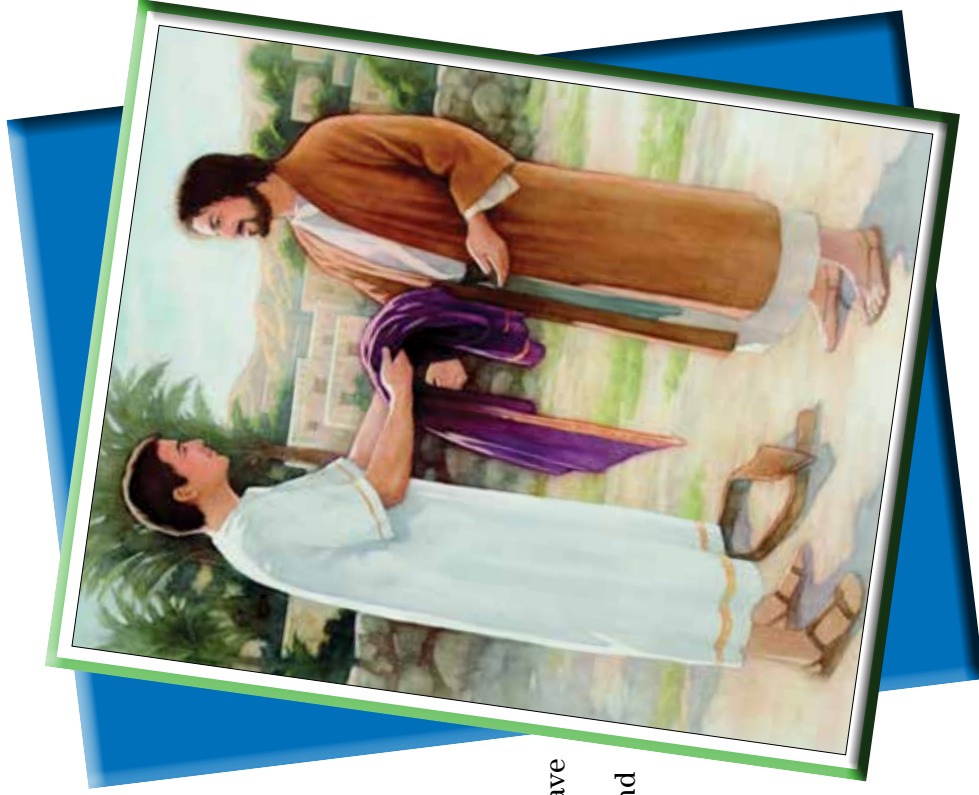

While at the king's house, David met Jonathan. Jonathan was King Saul's son. David liked Jonathan, and Jonathan liked David. Jonathan and David did many things together. Soon they became best friends.

Jonathan wanted to show David how glad he was to be David's friend. So Jonathan took off his robe and belt. He gave them to David. Then Jonathan gave David his bow for shooting arrows. These things were special to Jonathan, and he wanted David to have them.

Jonathan loved David and wanted David to know that. David and Jonathan were always best friends.

Parents:

- Talk with your preschooler about a way she could show love to a friend. Encourage her to follow through with the idea.
- This week, pray specifically with your child for her friends.
