Daniel was a man who loved God. One way he showed his love was by praying to God. Daniel prayed to God one, two, three times every day.

Daniel had an important job. He was the king's most important helper. The king liked Daniel very much. But there were some mean men who did not like Daniel. They were angry that the king liked Daniel better than them. These mean men thought of a plan to get Daniel in trouble with the king. They went to the king and said, "King, we think you should make a rule that everyone must pray only to you. If people pray to anyone else but you, they will be thrown into a cave filled with lions!"

The king thought this rule was a good idea. The king sent helpers to tell all the people they must pray only to him. The angry men watched to see what Daniel would do.

The next day Daniel opened his window, just like he always did. Daniel prayed to God, just like he always did. He did not pray to the king. The mean men watched as Daniel prayed to God. Then the mean men ran to tell the king what they saw.

Daniel was in trouble. The king was sad. The king did not want Daniel to be hurt, but the king had to obey the rule, too. Daniel was put into a big cave where lions lived. All night the king worried about Daniel's safety. The next morning, the king ran to the lions' cave. He called, "Daniel! DANIEL!"

Daniel called back from inside the cave, "King, I am safe. God took care of me!" The king was so glad that Daniel was not hurt! Daniel came out of the cave. The king knew that God had helped Daniel and kept him safe from the lions. Then the king told everyone what God had done. He made a new rule that everyone should love God and pray only to Him.
