Acts 21:17-22:30

Everywhere Paul went he told people about Jesus. One day Paul went to the Temple. Some people were angry because Paul told about Jesus.

These angry people saw Paul in the Temple. "Look!" they shouted. "This is the man we don't like!"

The angry people grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the Temple. Some soldiers heard the noise and ran to see what was happening.

The leader of the soldiers thought Paul had done something wrong. He put chains on Paul's hands and feet.

"Who is this man? What did he do?" the leader asked.

Everyone started shouting at the same time. The army leader couldn't understand what the people were saying. The army leader told the soldiers to take Paul away from the crowd.

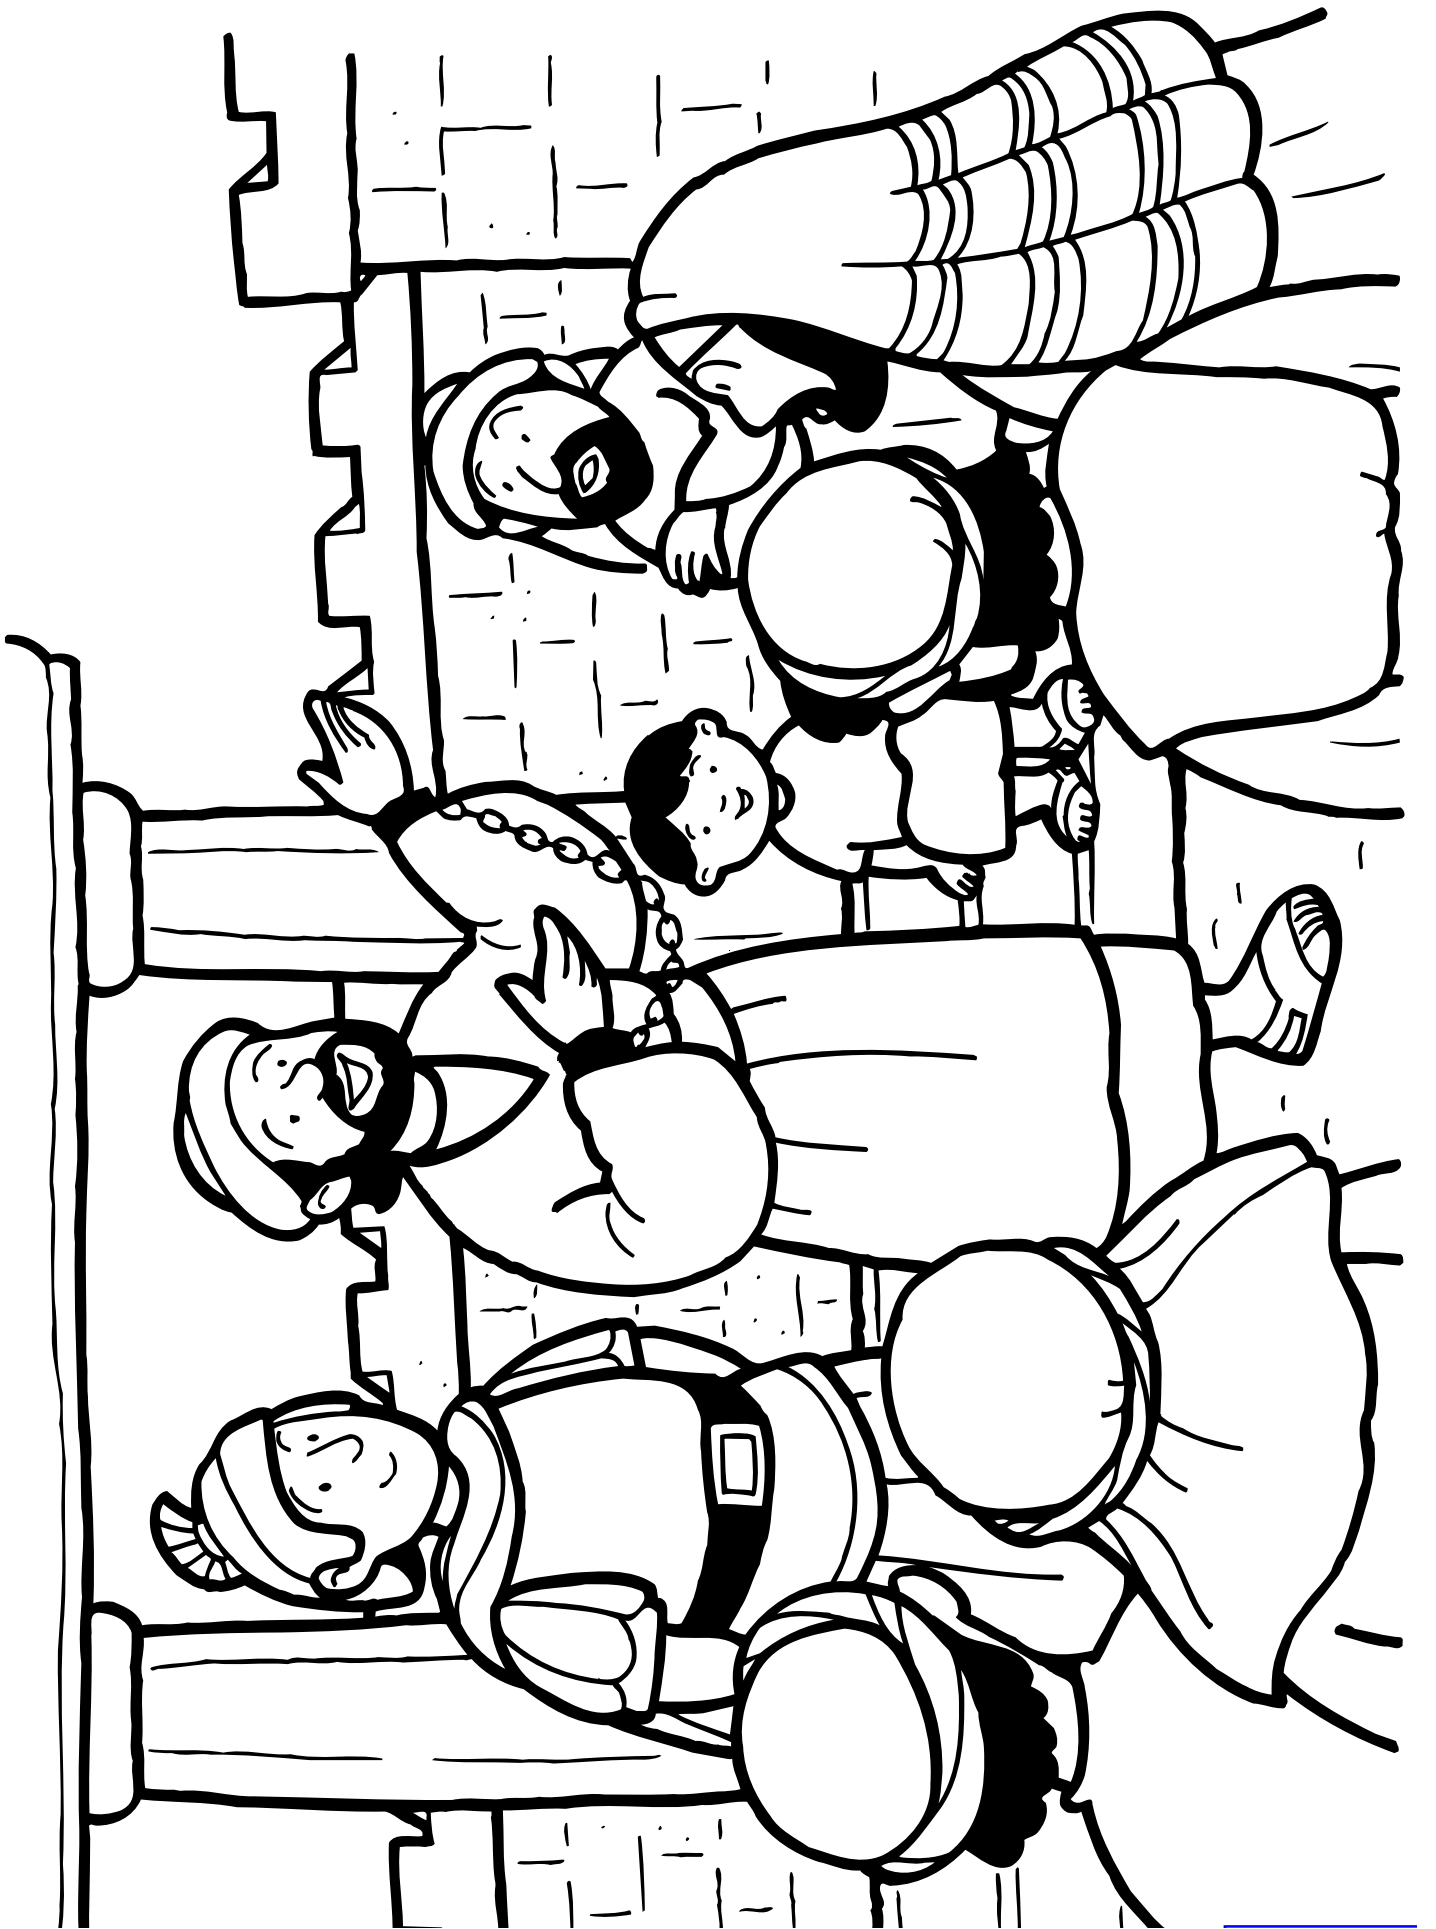

The angry, noisy crowd followed Paul and the soldiers. Paul asked, "May I talk to the people?"

The leader told Paul he could talk. The crowd became quiet. Paul said, "I used to hurt people who loved Jesus. But now I don't. God has told me to tell all people the good news that Jesus is God's Son. And I am obeying God."

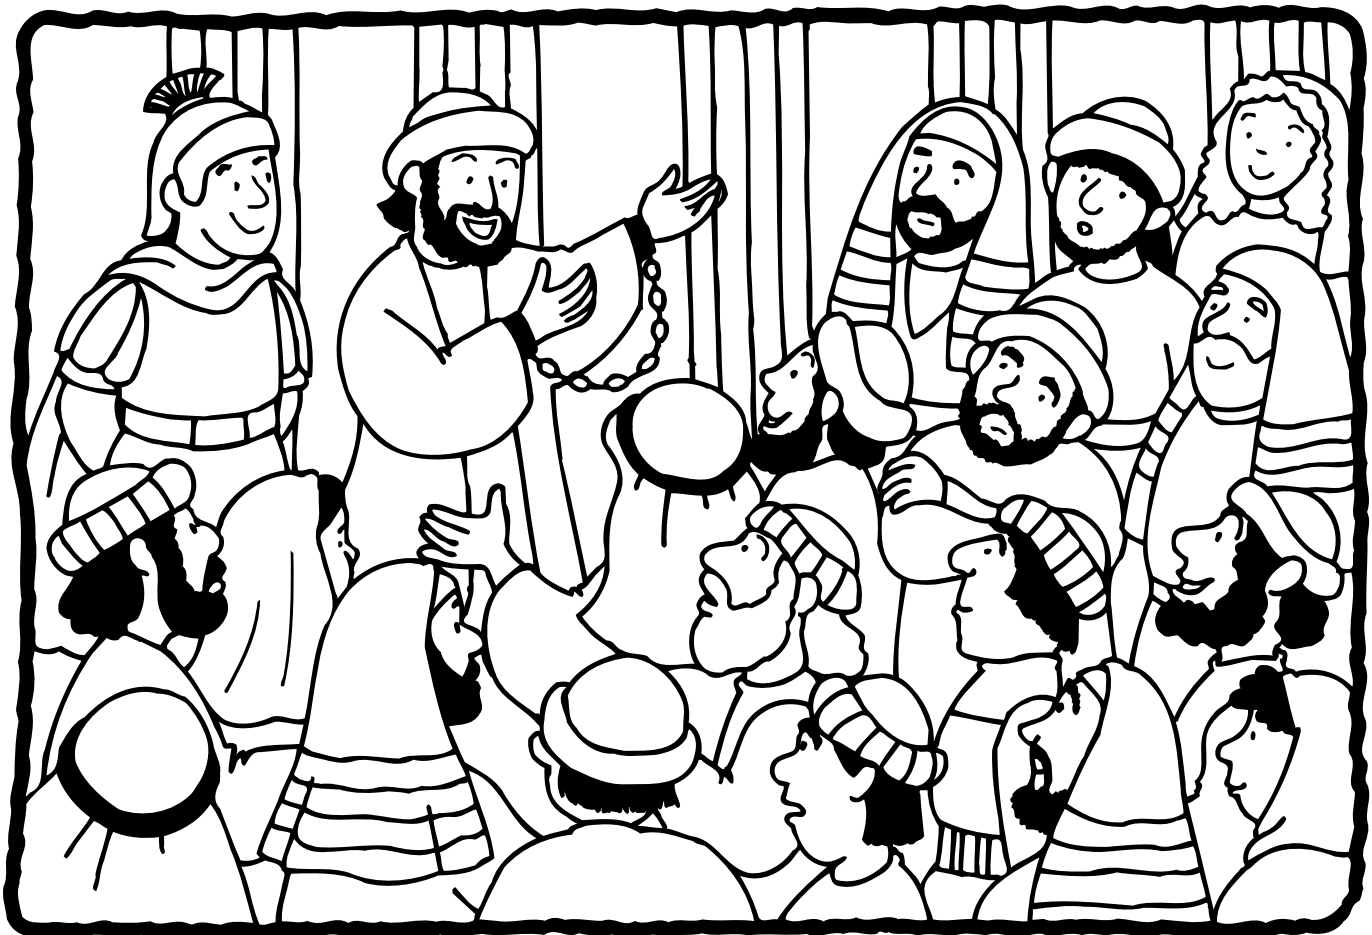

Even though the people were angry at Paul, Paul obeyed God. Paul obeyed God by telling that Jesus is God's Son.

Color 1 square in the chart for each item of that kind that you see in the picture.

Paul obeyed God's Word and told others about Jesus. We can obey God's Word, too. The Bible says, "I will obey God's word." (See Psalm 119:17.)
