

Isaiah Told About Jesus

Bible Phrase: God will send a child to be born. Isaiah 7:14

Scripture Reference:
Isaiah 1:1; 6:1,8; 7:14; 9:6-7; 11:1-5

Bible Story:

Isaiah lived in Jerusalem in the country of Judah. Isaiah heard God say, "Whom shall I send to tell people my message?"

Isaiah said, "Send me, God. I will go." Isaiah became a prophet. A prophet tells people what God wants them to know.

God chose Isaiah to tell the people some wonderful news. Isaiah wrote down what God told him. Isaiah wrote that a young woman would have a son, a special baby boy. The special baby would be God's Son. The baby would be Jesus.

God's message to Isaiah helped the people know that Jesus would love all people. Jesus would help people understand more about God. He would grow into a man. He would be wise. He would help people know and love God. He would always do what is right and would help people.

The words Isaiah wrote were on a Bible scroll. People who heard or read the words on the Bible scroll knew that God was planning to send His Son, Jesus.

PARENTS:

Read the Bible story with your child. Say the Bible verse. Ask your child to tell you about the picture she drew; then ask questions about it. What activity does your child like to do most at Christmas? What activity does she like least? Plan a family meeting and make a calendar for the month of December. Ask your child for input. Delete all the activities that distract from the true meaning of Christmas. Add activities that would put the focus back on Jesus.

Celebrate Christmas

What does your family do to prepare for Christmas? What decorations do you hang inside and outside your home? Does your family do a special activity such as looking at Christmas lights in your neighborhood or attending a children's Christmas program? Draw a picture of you and your family getting ready for Christmas.
