He Never Failed Me Yet

Chapel Choir Mission Tour 2023 | Wales

"...he remains faithful..."

2 Timothy 2:13

Stream of Confidence

There once were two friends who took a hike in the woods. Upon coming to a bridge over a raging river, they stopped for lunch. One friend was a little nervous about the bridge, questioning if it would hold his weight. He wondered aloud if the supports were strong enough. He wasn't sure if he could trust the builders. The other friend thought a little differently, pulling out his guidebook and reading about the experts who crafted the bridge, the thousands of people it carried over the years, and the safety certifications it held. Then, one at a time, they each crossed the bridge.

Who did the bridge hold, the one who was confident in its strength, or the one who was uncertain?

It held both, because the faithfulness of the bridge had nothing to do with the confidence of its passenger.

The same is true for us. Our God is faithful, sturdy, trustworthy, and dependable, even when we are not. The testimony of our lives is that in moments of deepest certainty and in seasons of profound doubt, our God has never failed us. His track record is perfect. His mistakes are none.

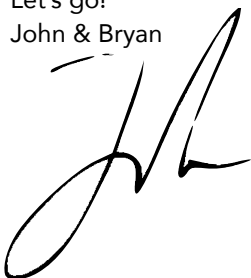

That's why we can have confidence that celebrating this good news and sharing it with others are some of the best things we could spend our time doing. Because Christ's love is unchanging, we're free to share it and sing it with joy and gratitude.

This year, we are headed to Wales to encourage and be encouraged by the Christ-followers there and remind them that they are not alone. We're going to serve with them, learn from them, laugh with them, and pray for them. As we do, we'll meet some really great people along the way. Many of these people will be on a path that we, too, are on—walking toward Christ. Some might not even know it yet.

As a response to God's call to show the love of Christ to everyone, including each other, Chapel Choir is going to Wales to be a part of the work God is already doing there through ministry, music, and service.

We have important work to do and lots of good news to sing about. We're so thankful to have a front row seat to God's work in and through you.

Let's go!

Apparel Guidance

The apparel guidance, provided at registration, informing clothing choices for Mission Tour is available at dawsonchurch.org/chapelchoir. Please help us make our entire group successful by reviewing this carefully.

Luggage Specifics

- All your belongings must be able to be carried by only you at the same time.
- Three luggage tags per person will be provided at check-in.
- Bring one piece of luggage with working wheels and a working handle (45 lbs maximum weight).
- Bring one backpack that your other smaller bags can go in. You may not have additional bags, including a traditional carry-on bag.
- You may be assigned an additional piece of group luggage for the duration of the trip.
- Bring your instrument and/or folding stand if you're assigned one.
- Coordinate items you can share with roommates to reduce what you pack.
- Write your first and last name on the tag of your provided t-shirts and formal apparel.

Carry-on Requirements

Your single carry-on is a backpack, and all other bags must fit inside it. While many things are allowed in your carry-on when you travel, be sure to consider things that are limited for your safety. For example, you can't carry a full water bottle through TSA checkpoints.

You are allowed to bring a quart-sized resealable plastic bag of liquids, aerosols, gels, creams and pastes in your carry-on bag and through checkpoints. These are limited to travel-sized containers that are 3.4 ounces (100 milliliters) or less per item. Placing these items in the quart-sized bag and separating it from your carry-on baggage facilitates the screening process. Pack items that are in containers larger than 3.4 ounces or 100 milliliters in checked baggage. For more information, visit www.tsa.gov/travel/security-screening.

Arrival & Check In

1. Check in at the table in the north parking lot.
2. Put on the three silicone bracelets, and be thinking about how you will give them away. You're on mission!
3. Attach your three luggage tags to your luggage: one onto the handle of your main luggage and one onto the handle of your backpack. Slip one tag in your backpack for later, or use it for an additional piece of luggage that you've been assigned.
4. Tightly tie the ribbon on the handle of your checked luggage. This will help us quickly identify our bags when we pick them up.
5. Your bags will be separated on the buses by flight group, so keep that in mind as you load up.
6. Use the restroom now.
7. Head to the Chapel for prayer.
8. Get on your assigned bus for your flight group, using your passport as your entry pass.

Airport

1. The two flight groups will be arriving at different terminals.
2. Exit the bus when instructed. Your passport gets you off the bus.
3. Once inside, find your travel group leader and move to the ticket counter with your checked luggage. Have your passport ready.
4. Once your entire travel group has checked their luggage, move through security as a group.
5. Once through security, give your ticket and/or boarding pass to your travel group leader to hold onto until you get to the gate.
6. Meet at the departure gate, being courteous and attentive to the airline staff assisting and other travelers. Demonstrate self-awareness about how our large group impacts others.

Water

You should bring a personal water bottle and stay hydrated. Note that water bottles must be empty at TSA checkpoints. Bottled water will often be available on the buses and at the hotel on your hall as well.

Food & Dining

In order for you to be effective in the ministries we're supporting, it's important that you eat at the scheduled mealtimes. Sometimes this will mean eating something that is not your favorite. Please do so anyway. Be careful that your comments do not express ingratitude for the food your hosts serve and enjoy every day. See links section at the end of the Guidebook for menus.

Phones & Wifi

In order to avoid international roaming fees, cell phones can be switched to airplane mode before leaving the United States. Wifi can be re-enabled while leaving airplane mode engaged. There will be free wifi at our hotel. To make an emergency call with your cell phone, simply turn off airplane mode and make the call. Fees may apply.

Social Media & Pictures

For daily updates and to have your pictures included in the week-in-review slideshow, the Music & Worship Facebook page, and other places, please be sure to:

- Use the #HeNeverFailedMeYet2023 hashtag on Instagram and Facebook.
- Like Dawson Music & Worship on Facebook.
- Follow @dawsonmusicandworship on Instagram.
- Upload to our Dropbox using this QR code.

Post Office

Once we arrive at our destination, each student and sponsor will write a note of encouragement and affirmation on provided cards to all others in their family group. These can be turned in to the post office, kept by the Freshmen Women, or placed in designated boxes on the bus. These completed notes will be distributed throughout Mission Tour.

Medical & Medication

Our medical coordinator is Jennifer Compere. In case of sickness or injury, please tell a sponsor. Prescriptions must be in original packaging. Prescription medication will be administered as indicated at registration.

Money

You are responsible for up to 5 meals in the airport; other meals are covered. You are responsible for extra snacks, souvenirs, and other optional items. A lot of spending money is not needed. Alert your credit card company that you will be traveling to Wales, so your credit card will work in the airport. See daily itinerary for specific monetary needs. Note that requesting foreign currency from a bank takes some time. The currency in Wales is the British Pound (£). If you'd prefer, you can use your ATM card to withdraw funds in British Pounds at several locations near the hotel.

Power

For UK, the associated plug type is G, which has three rectangular pins in a triangular pattern, operating on a 230V supply voltage and 50Hz. Adapters and converters are different; learn more at <https://tinyurl.com/24f9usz6>.

Worship Etiquette

- A worship service in Wales may be longer than the hour to which you're accustomed.
- When it's time for the offering, give as you feel led.
- Welsh songs for worship will be a joy to learn. Embrace the experience and participate.
- Things will be different in worship than you're used to, and your presence may make some of the local worship leaders nervous. Your genuine participation, the caring smile on your face, and the engagement of your body will signal to them that you support them.
- Avoid whispering, pointing, or giggling during worship. It's easy to be misunderstood, so participate and save your comments until after we depart.
- Affirm and support what you see. Whatever it is, celebrate it. No matter how different, give thanks for it.
- Sing in English if you know the song!

Worship in Welsh

It may be hard to worship when you don't understand what's being said or sung. When you find yourself in a time of worship, music, or preaching that is not being led in English, don't zone out. Instead, try this...

- Participate. Risk feeling a little odd and try to participate, doing whatever the rest of the congregation is doing. Who cares if you don't do it perfectly. We don't worship perfectly even when it's being led in English!
- Notice. Look around at the space you're in, the people who surround you, and those leading. What might God be teaching you through where you are now?
- Imagine. Imagine what might be happening. Listen for words you might know, and pay attention to facial expressions and gestures. Imagine what God needs to say to you today.
- Read. Open your Bible, and see if you can find the words to the scripture being preached. Read the passage through multiple times, and ask the Holy Spirit to illuminate the passage in your mind.
- Pray. Spend some time in prayer, certainly for yourself, but also for those around you. Pick a person, imagine their joys and struggles, and pray for them. What if you prayed for each person in the building before you left?
- Empathize. Even on Sunday morning at Dawson, there are some folks—and perhaps even you—who are invited to sing in a language that is not their first language. What's similar for them that you're also experiencing? What's different? What would help them at home? What would help you here, far from home?

Flight Tips

1. It is never okay to joke about having a weapon, bomb, or other illegal item. Doing so can get you arrested and the flight cancelled.
2. Keep your passport/boarding passes handy when you arrive at the airport. You'll need them frequently. Neck wallets are helpful for keeping your I.D. and credit card handy while in the airport.
3. Your tray table is actually connected to someone's seat. When you bump your tray table, you bump the person in front of you.
4. Lavatories are generally at the back of the plane. Be prepared for a huge gush when you flush, as airplane toilets are loud. To open many lavatory (restroom) doors, you must push on the middle of them.
5. You can request a blanket if you are cold. You can adjust the flow of air above your head by turning the nozzle.
6. You must store your carry-on luggage under the seat in front of you or in the overhead bin. Don't try to keep your bag on your lap or by your feet.
7. If you get sick, there's a white bag located in the seat back in front of you.
8. There is a call button above your head to get help from the flight attendants. Use it sparingly.
9. You will be in close quarters. Try to keep your arms in your own space. It's a little awkward sitting so close to a perfect stranger.
10. Listen to and respect the flight attendants. They are in charge.
11. If you are in an exit row, you must be willing and able to assist in case of an emergency. If you don't want to sit there, politely ask to be moved. If you are under 15 years old, you can't sit in an exit row.
12. Seats recline in most rows by pressing a button on your armrest. Be considerate of the passenger behind you.
13. Be friendly and considerate of others. Be patient and helpful if you're sitting by parents of young children.
14. You must sit in your assigned seat as indicated on your boarding pass.
15. There could be turbulence, but it's usually mild. So, just sit back and enjoy the flight.
16. If you become anxious, take slow, deep breaths, and relax your body. Contact the Mission Tour medical personnel, if needed.

Drop-In Guests

Friends or parents planning on dropping by to visit while on Mission Tour, including the Senior Banquet, should take a moment to review the guidance found at www.dawsonchurch.org/chapelchoir. Generally, these guests should plan to visit briefly and simply observe, allowing their student to continue to participate uninterrupted with our group.

The Bus Liturgy

Being still can be hard. With all the things competing for our attention, finding time to begin our day with Christ can be challenging. That's why we're beginning each day with a special kind of audio devotional—The Bus Liturgy—voiced by the Chapel Choir Officers. They'll guide your time of quiet reflection and preparation. You'll grab your phone and your headphones, close your eyes, and listen.

Each day, you'll encounter a different kind of music to help focus your heart and mind. You'll hear words that remind you about what's in store for the day. Scripture will be the center of your devotional time, and you'll experience questions for reflection that will invite you to go deeper in your following of Christ. Your mind may wander; that's okay. When it does, just refocus your attention on the things you are hearing. You may even want to listen a second time, if you found yourself distracted. That's great.

The 15-Second Testimony

Personal testimony is powerful because it shows that God can change lives. It highlights the contrast between our old life and our new life in Christ.

However, one common mistake is sharing too many details, and sometimes we don't even share at all due to fear or lack of time.

To simplify sharing your story, use four simple words or phrases. This scripted method keeps you on track and ensures brevity. It should only take 15 seconds. Here's how:

1. Think of two words that describe your life before meeting Jesus.
2. Think of two words that describe how Jesus changed your life.

Then share as follows:

"There was a time in my life when I was (insecure) and (angry). Then I met Jesus, put my trust in Him, and made Him number one in my life. Now I am (secure) and (full of joy). Do you have a story like this?"

The last question is crucial as it invites the other person to share their own experience. Practice this method in a group, passing it along to others for practice.

If you became a believer at a young age and don't remember your life before Jesus, think of two words that describe a time of crisis or uncertainty. Simply omit the phrase "I met Jesus" and say, "Then I put my trust in Jesus and made Him number one in my life."

Remember to:

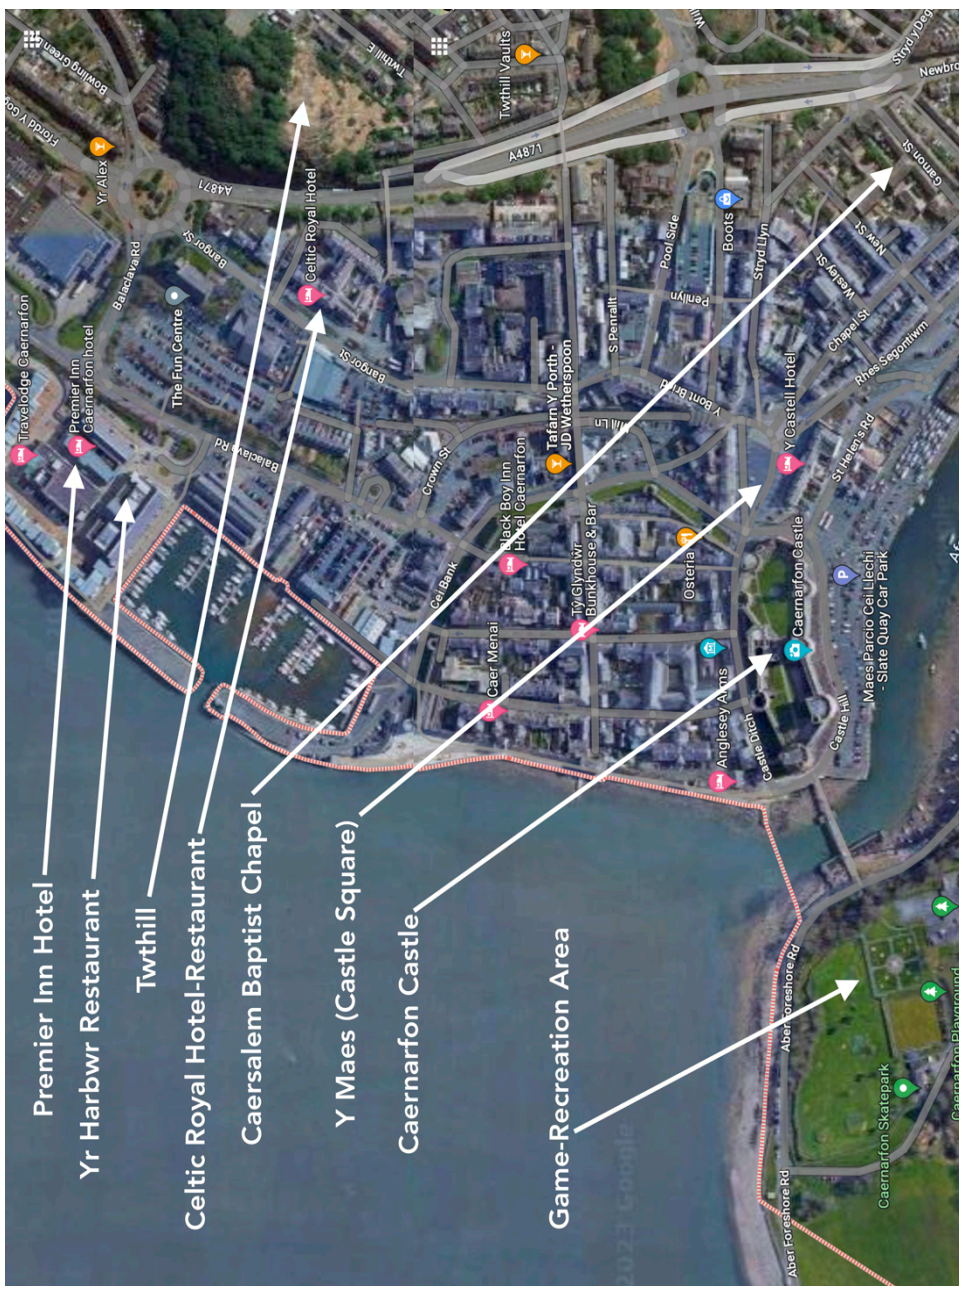

- Practice the method.
- Start using it with unbelievers.
- Teach other believers how to share their 15-second testimonies.

Keep it concise and impactful!

About the Welsh People

Who are the Cymry Cymraeg?

Many people think that English is the only language of the United Kingdom, and Wales in particular. In reality, Welsh is spoken by nearly a quarter of the Welsh population. Welsh is one of the six living Celtic languages that has been spoken since 250 B.C. Welsh is as different from English as Arabic, French, Greek, or Hebrew.

Those who speak the Welsh language are known as the Cymry Cymraeg. According to the 2001 Census, there are 2,805,701 people in Wales over the age of 3. There are 797,717 people in Wales with some ability in the language. However, some unofficial surveys indicate that the influence of the language may reach many more people.

A linguistic map of Wales, showing where there are high concentrations of Welsh speakers (red - darker = higher concentration)

Where do the Cymry Cymraeg live?

Though Welsh speakers can be found anywhere in Wales (and in growing numbers in the large cities), most Welsh speakers live in Western part of Wales. Welsh speakers make up a large part of the population in Gwynedd, Anglesey, Cardigan, North Pembroke, and Carmarthen Counties.

John 3:16 in Cymraeg

Ioan 3:16

Social Overview

Wales is a beautiful land of mountains, rivers, rolling hills, and extraordinary coastlines. It is a land of song, poetry, and tradition. Historically, Wales has often also struggled economically, in spite of the fact that the nation has great natural resources; and for many Americans, Wales is the least well known of the nations of the United Kingdom. The mountainous terrain has made the nation feel a bit secluded, and Wales has had a history marked by tragic events, such as accidents (usually mining), and an occupation mentality, due to centuries of various forms of oppression from neighboring nations. Many Welsh people immigrated to places around the world, and the fact that many “American” sounding names such as Jones, Williams, Hughes, Roberts, Davis, etc, are actually Welsh is testimony to this. The situation has now changed in some ways.

Though, economically, Wales trails behind other areas in the United Kingdom, it is now a very modern country with a new sense of itself. There is a newly found pride in being Welsh, especially for young people, which has given rise to the phenomenon known as “Cool Cymru” (Cymru, being the Welsh word for Wales). Wales has been home to many entertainers of national and international renown, such as actors Richard Burton, Catherine Zeta-Jones, Anthony Hopkins, and musicians Stereophonics, Shirley Bassey, and Tom Jones. Whereas mining, farming, and fishing once sustained most families (and farming and fishing are still important), today tourism and industry drive the economy. This economic change has drastically changed the social structure in Wales.

Where once the coal mine or slate/granite quarry was the center of the society in many places in Wales, these communities have now lost their sense of themselves in some ways, with the closure of most mines and quarries in recent decades. This fact, compounded by the ever decreasing influence of the Chapels, has produced an interesting sociological shift in that, for many people in Wales, sport, especially rugby clubs in the South, has become the new social center. In many places, there is not much for young people to do, and there are growing problems in Wales, as in other parts of the U.K., with drug use (especially among the young) and antisocial behavior.

However, the new Wales is also very aware of the outside world and is playing a more active role in many arenas. Welsh people are well-travelled, often multi-lingual, and dedicated not only to the enhancement and development of their own nation, but to the role that Wales can play in Europe and the world.

Spiritual Overview

Traditionally, Wales has had a very strong religious identity. The “Non-conformists” (denominations such as Presbyterians, Baptists, Methodists, Congregationalists, etc.) have made up the bulk of not just the Christian community, but also the general population. In fact, a hundred years ago, well over 90% of the Welsh population would have been active, Non-conformist Christian. Non-conformists call their meeting places “Chapels,” which is both a theological and cultural designation. There is also a strong Anglican tradition in Wales (known as “The Church in Wales”), who tend to call their meeting places “Church.” Traditionally, Roman Catholicism has not been as strong as the Anglican and Non-conformist traditions.

Wales has also been marked by several, dramatic spiritual Revivals. These have occurred at various times over the past 250 years, the last of which in 1904. However, at present, very few people attend any kind of church (5% of the total population of Wales). Most active church or chapel-goers are elderly, and the vast majority of Welsh young people have little or no knowledge of the Gospel.

At present, only about 1-2% of the Welsh population (about 1% among Welsh speakers) would consider themselves to be clearly Evangelical Christians, after many years of dramatically declining numbers. However, though a low percentage of the overall population, Evangelicals in Wales are clear and committed when it comes to the Gospel message and dedicated to reaching their own nation for Christ as well as continuing to be a light to other nations around the world.

About Linguæ Christi

Linguæ Christi Vision Statement

By God's power, we will join Him in bringing glory to Himself through the announcement and expansion of His Kingdom and the making of disciple-making disciples of Jesus among the speakers of the European Indigenous Minority Languages.

Linguæ Christi Mission Statement

The birth, growth and ongoing reproduction of indigenous, multiplying, self-sustaining, New Testament communities of faith (Churches) in these European Indigenous Minority Languages would be both the natural outcome and evidence of the fulfillment of the Vision.

Ethos

- We work with very specific people groups, namely those who still speak or use one of the European indigenous minority languages as their heart or preferred language.
- Most minority languages speakers also speak a "world" language, like English or French. However, evangelism and church planting efforts solely through these second languages have produced little or no lasting results among these people groups.
- According to the New Testament, evangelism and church planting through the medium of the heart language is God's way of bringing people into His Kingdom and planting His church.
- We believe that the heart language is God's way of reaching these people and establishing His church among them.

Prayer Walking

Welcome to the Land of Revivals! We are grateful for your presence and pray that this time will be a blessing to you. Your being here is a blessing to us and to the Welsh speakers, the Cymry Cymraeg. Get ready for an exciting prayer journey as you walk and pray among the Cymry Cymraeg in Wales.

As a prayerwalker, you have a significant role in preparing the ground and readying the soil for the seed to be planted. Reflecting on 1 Corinthians 3:6-9a, remember that it is God who makes things grow, while those who plant and water have one purpose. Your labor will be rewarded according to your efforts. We are fellow workers with God.

Stay steadfast in your prayers, as they make a difference. Pray without ceasing, knowing that the Scriptures will be fulfilled. Revelation 5:9 reminds us that people from every tribe, language, people, and nation are purchased by the blood of Jesus.

We thank God for bringing you here to pray on-site with insight for the Cymry Cymraeg of Wales. Let "That They May Know" be the theme of your prayers, as eternal life is to know the only true God and Jesus Christ, whom He sent (John 17:3).

May your prayers continue even after you leave, lifting the Cymry Cymraeg of Wales to the Heavenly Father. We also pray that prayerwalking becomes a part of your routine in your own neighborhood, witnessing God's work.

Sincerely,
Linguæ Christi

Speaking Welsh

Welsh Pronunciation Guide

- “y” alone or in stressed syllables is pronounced “uh” as in the English word “fun” (or “ah” I suppose when you’re singing, but it’s still a more central vowel). Unstressed “y” (like “sbrigyn”) is a short “i” as in the English word “sit”.
- “u” and “i” are both pronounced “ee” as in the English word “see.” This is true for diphthongs with “au” as well.
- “w” at the beginning of a syllable is similar to in English, but in the middle it functions as a vowel and has the sound “oo” as in the English word “cool.”
- “e” and “a” are roughly similar to what we would sing in English, but not in spoken speech.
- “ch” is similar to German except that it’s velar and not palatal.
- “ll” is not pronounced like an “l” in English—pull the tip of your tongue to rest on the space just behind your alveolar ridge and blow air out as you would with “sh”.
- “ngh” is similar to the sound we have at the end of “-ing”, followed by a “h”.

Not Offending

What not to say or do

- "Booger" or "Bugger" is a totally different word in the UK, and it will offend.
- "Piddle around"—an untrained dog might do this on the carpet.
- When counting "two" on your fingers, use the peace sign (palm facing away from you) or your thumb and first finger. The "V" shaped peace sign with the palm facing you is a bad sign to make.
- Of course, "the finger" is the same in the UK and US.

Here are some other words, which though innocent in American English, will offend when used here. Therefore, avoid these words at all costs: bloody, spunk, spunky, spastic, randy, crap, bum, puff, to give someone a ride, fanny.

Remember, some words are universal, so use your head. They watch our US movies and television and are probably more familiar with US slang than you are with UK slang.

Getting Offended

You may be offended by some things you hear Christian friends say. Relax, they have words, like those here, that are harmless to them. (This list is not exhaustive.)

These are not jokes to be made, even in private, but information to help to serve and connect more deeply.

The Story: Creation

In the beginning, God spoke and everything came into existence. By His command, the entire universe was created and filled with a dramatic display of galaxies, stars, and planets— including Earth, on which was a perfect garden of paradise called Eden. Of all the beauty He created, the masterpiece was a man and a woman. God made Adam and Eve in His image to reflect Him. They were created with the grand purpose of worshipping Him by loving Him, serving Him, and enjoying relationship with Him.

By God's design, all of creation was in harmony and was exactly the way it was supposed to be. During this time, there was no pain, suffering, sickness, or death. There was complete love, acceptance, and intimacy between God and man, between Adam and Eve, and throughout creation. But something tragic happened...

The Story: Fall

Adam and Eve were far from being equal to God, yet He lovingly placed them in charge of all He had created in Eden. He gave them the freedom to make decisions and govern the earth with one rule: not to eat fruit from a specific tree. One day, God's enemy, a fallen angel named Satan, wanted to overthrow God, so he took the form of a serpent and lied to Adam and Eve. He deceived them into thinking God was not good and did not have their best interest in mind. As a result, they knowingly disobeyed God.

In rebellion, Adam and Eve ate the fruit, deciding that they, not God, would determine right and wrong. The consequences of their actions were devastating! Like a virus, sin entered into all of creation and into the hearts of Adam and Eve. Sin, suffering, and pain were passed down from generation to generation; all of creation was distorted from its original design. We have all read or heard the stories of war, poverty, disease, greed, and scandals that plague our world today. Those are all a result of sin.

When we think about the perfection and love that existed at the beginning of creation, we realize we are far more flawed and far more sinful than we can dare imagine. Just think of the grudges we've held, the lies we've told, the thoughts we'd never dare say aloud. An honest glance into our own hearts reveals the truth: we are all guilty. Everyone has sinned, and the ultimate consequence, even worse than physical death, is eternal separation from a loving God, in terrible misery and unhappiness. Because of all this, we need to consider the questions: Can anything be done? Is there any hope?

The Story: Rescue

The Rescue

48 The Story

God removed Adam and Eve from Eden as a result of their sin but left them with a promise of rescue and hope. He promised them one of their descendants would someday rescue mankind from sin. Over the next centuries, God prepared the way for this person who would become the Savior of the world. Exact details of His birth, life, and death were recorded in the Bible many centuries before His coming. In fact, the whole Bible ultimately points to this one person as the focal point of all human history. His purpose in coming was “to seek and to save what was lost” (Luke 19:10). So who was He?

The promised Savior, simply, was God. God became human in the person of Jesus Christ almost 2,000 years ago, fulfilling all the predictions in the Old Testament. Jesus’ birth was miraculous since His mother was a virgin. His life was unique: He perfectly enjoyed and obeyed God without sin. This ultimately led to His agonizing death on a cross as He willingly, obediently, and sufficiently died to pay for the sins of mankind, according to God’s plan. In the greatest display of mercy and grace the world has ever known, Jesus’ life and death became a substitute for all who would trust in Him. The perfectly innocent died to rescue the hopelessly guilty from sin and Satan.

But the grave couldn’t hold Jesus. Three days later, Jesus emerged from His tomb, fulfilling His earthly mission to defeat sin by dying on the cross and to defeat death by rising from the dead—just as God promised. Forty days later, He returned to Heaven where He reigns as the rightful King.

But the story doesn’t end there...

The Story: Restoration

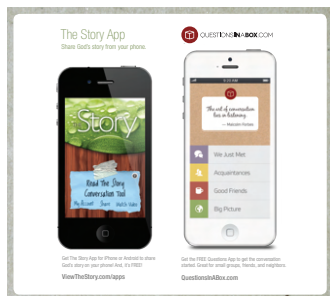

For all those who trust in Jesus alone, God has also promised He will make all things new. The new heaven and new earth will be completely free of sin and selfishness—a place of perfect friendship with God, others, and all creation. No more shattering earthquakes, devastating tsunamis, or violent storms will plague the earth. No more pain, broken hearts, sickness, or death to trouble us.

Everything will be restored to the way it was meant to be. The new earth will once again be the perfect home God intended for His creation. God's original purpose will flourish, as those who trust in His rescue will enter into the grand purpose of worshipping Him by loving Him, serving Him, and enjoying relationship with Him forever.

The most wonderful part of this new world is that we will be with God forever, experiencing complete joy. We will be restored to a perfect relationship with the One who created, loved, and died for us. Scholar and children's author C. S. Lewis compared the first step into this new world as "Chapter One of the Great Story which no one on earth has read: which goes on forever: in which every chapter is better than the one before."

The Story: Next

WHAT'S YOUR PART IN THE STORY?

God is writing an amazing story from creation to restoration. He created you to be a part of that story to worship Him, serve Him, and enjoy relationship with Him. By joining God in His story, you will find forgiveness, purpose, and satisfaction as you come to know the Author of life.

RESCUE BY FAITH ALONE

Faith is simple trust in Jesus Christ alone to save you. It means instead of believing you can rescue yourself from the consequences of sin, you transfer your trust to the rescue He purchased for you by His death. Your allegiance is now to Jesus, The King. Those who place their trust in anything other than Jesus will find themselves forever separated from the loving God who gave His one and only Son to set us free from the bondage of sin. This painful separation is called Hell.

RESPONSE

God is inviting you to be part of the story He is writing throughout the ages to come. He is offering salvation to you today, which is your invitation to the rescue God offers. You can embrace the rescue of God by simply:

- Admitting your need to God
- Asking Him to forgive you
- Trusting in Jesus alone to rescue you
- Following Jesus Christ, the King of your life, in faith from this day forward.

NOW

The moment you trust Jesus Christ, you become a child of God and His Spirit begins to live inside of you. You have become part of His story. The more you grow in your relationship with God, the more of His story you will begin to see and understand in your life. All of your sin, past and future, is forgiven, and you now find total acceptance before Him. When you begin this relationship, Jesus promises to be with you through all the ups and downs and in the joys and difficulties of this life. He loves you with an everlasting, unchanging love. And not only has He promised eternal life, but He came so that you could also experience purpose, fulfillment, and freedom in this life.

Questions for Reflection

Sometimes it helps to reflect on all that God has allowed you to encounter, and imagine through prayer what that might mean for you, your family, and your community. As you spend time with God and with others, use these questions to help you reflect.

Daily Reflection

- What do you feel that God needed you to see or hear today? Why?
- What moments from today “grabbed” you in a deep way—in the gut?
- What moments from today made you cringe in a deep way—in the gut?
- What is your prayer for the people you encountered today?
- What concerns do you have at the end of this day?

Ongoing Reflection

- Ongoing reflection is a part of our work together. What event from earlier in the week are you still processing? Why?
- How does knowing “the end of the story”—that one day every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Jesus is Lord—impact the way you ministered to people today?
- What did you see today/on this trip that makes you want to act—to do something to make a difference?
- Did you have a moment today when you were grateful for our group?
- What stories from today/this week will you remember long after it is gone?
- What stories from today/this week will you share in the days ahead?

Future Imagination

- What hopes do you have for tomorrow?
- What hopes do you have after this mission tour?
- What might you change about your own thoughts, attitudes, and behaviors as a result of this day/this trip?
- How might you live differently as a result of this day/this trip?
- How is God changing you as a result of this trip?
